MESSAGE

Dear Esteemed Participants,

It is my privilege to welcome you to the Natural Resources & Energy Summit 2025, jointly hosted by Fidelity Insurance Brokers (FIB) and Lockton. Building on the momentum of last year's focus on energy resilience, this year we turn our attention to the broader landscape of natural resources, mining, and sustainable energy solutions—areas that are not only critical for Pakistan's economic growth but also for long-term regional stability.

The mining and energy sectors represent vast untapped potential for our country. With responsible investment, innovative technology, and strong governance and comprehensive risk management practices, these industries can become engines of growth—driving industrial development, creating employment, enhancing energy security, and generating valuable foreign exchange earnings.

At this summit, we bring together industry leaders, policymakers, investors, lenders and Insurance experts to discuss opportunities, share insights, and address the challenges that stand in the way of progress
